

OPERATIONS HAVE BEEN RESUMED IN THE BELMONT EX.

Shaft Is Being Repaired While Grading Is Under Way for Foundation of Machinery for Hoisting Plant.

After lying idle and practically abandoned for nearly six years, the Belmont Extension Mining company has resumed operations on the company ground east of town and preparations are now under way to begin extensive development work. The Belmont Extension, which consists of four claims, adjoins the Rescue-Eula to the east and the Halifax to the south. A shaft on the property is down 420 feet and it is understood that additional depth will first be secured before any lateral work is undertaken. The present shaft is about 2000 feet from that of the Rescue-Eula, and is a two-compartment affair.

The collar was destroyed by fire about a year ago, but already two new sets of timbers have been replaced.

Over $8000 worth of machinery, which includes a new electric hoist and air compressor, has been ordered and as soon as it arrives and is set in place, the work will be actively started. A force of men are now at work grading for the foundation of the machinery and everything will be in readiness by the time of its arrival.

George Wingfield, Sam Forman, Letson Ballet and E. J. Erickson are the heaviest owners in the property.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL IN BIG MINING SUIT

PLAINTIFFS, HOWEVER, MAY BRING NEW ACTION IF THEY WISH TO

In District Judge Ritchie's court, Friday, the suit of Joseph E. Caine and Max Junghandel against F. J. Hagenbarth, to recover $190,000 alleged to be due as the balance on the purchase price of mining property in Nevada, was dismissed without prejudice, upon motion of the plaintiffs, says the Salt Lake Tribune. In District Judge Lewis' court, the first of the year, Caine and Junghandel got judgment for approximately $115,000, one of the biggest judgments ever recorded in a mining case in Utah, but the supreme court reversed the judgment and remanded the case for a new trial. The dismissal of the suit Friday leaves the plaintiffs in a position to bring a new suit, but whether they will do so is uncertain.

Caine and Junghandel bought an option to purchase the property in question from the Ludwig Copper Mining company for $1,000,000, and before the option expired sold their rights in the claims to Hagenbarth, who advanced $15,000 before examining the claims. After he investigated the property he refused to complete the purchase and Caine and Junghandel sued.

NO COMPROMISE FOR DIRECTORS OF STATE BANK

CARSON CITY, Nov. 15—Judge Langdon rendered his decision yesterday which denies the petition of Receiver Wildes of the defunct Nevada State Bank and Trust company, to be authorized to compromise action against Directors Mapes and Bender of that institution, for $20,000 in each instance.

The court held that to compromise with Mapes and Bender would nullify any action that might be brought against any other directors of the bank in the efforts of depositors to recover money lost in the failure.

JUDGE HONORED

"Fighting Judge" John E. Raker, of the superior court of Modoc county, Cal., former chairman of the democratic state central committee, has been elected to congress in the first congressional district, over his stand-pat republican opponent, W. F. Englebright.

Raker earned his title of "fighting judge" in a series of exciting adventures in Modoc county, in which he figured prominently a few years ago.

On one occasion, when he was threatened in giving a decision by a room full of armed men, he drew two revolvers from his pockets, placed them on the table, and ruled adversely to the wishes of the crowd.

PICTURES FOR TONIGHT ARE OUT OF ORDINARY

EVERY FILM FOR THIS EVENING IS A FEATURE IN ITSELF

The following excellent program will be shown at the Butler theatre this afternoon and evening: "The Romance of a Necklace," a picture representing the most striking incidents in the life of Benvenuto Cellini, a sculptor whose principal work, "Persee," is a masterpiece. The romance affects a daughter of a count of that time, who has other ideas for the girl. "Foiled By a Cigarette" is the story of how a spy was captured after stealing the plans of a fortress. "The Chuncho Indians" is an excellent picture of such little known country and people that it has all the charm of novelty, while conveying information in a very emphatic way. The Chuncho Indians were formerly the most savage tribe of all the known South American Indians, and inhabited the Parene valley in Peru. "The Stolen Father" is a picture that is out of the ordinary. It is not the usual thing by any means and if any one can see it without wanting to see it over again, he must be of a certainty lacking in discernment.

BIG MINING DEAL AT LUDLOW CAL.

One of the most important mining deals that has taken place in the southwest for several years was consummated a few days ago when the Pacific Mines corporation, a new company just formed in New York for the specific purpose, assumed control of the famous old Bagdad-Chase mines and the almost equally famous Roosevelt group, adjoining each other seven miles south of Ludlow in San Bernardino county, California, and connected with the main line of the Santa Fe by a railroad, known as the Ludlow and Southern railroad.

The details of the arrangement were worked out by Frank A. Keith, the well known mining engineer of Los Angeles, who was formerly general manager of the Tonopah Mining company and who is known to be the personal representative of John Hays Hammond's interests in this section. He it was who secured in conjunction with John Hobbs of Denver a large interest in the Tom Reed mine in Mohave county, for the Hammond interests.

The Bagdad-Chase properties are among the most widely known in the southwest and have produced in excess of $2,500,000 from above the 200-foot level. The property was owned and worked for many years by the Bagdad-Chase Gold Mining company.

LIFE OF MOSES WILL BE SHOWN FRIDAY EVENING

SPECIAL ATTRACTION HAS BEEN SECURED BY THE BUTLER
THEATRE

An exceptional program has been arranged at the Butler theatre for Friday evening. Mr. Goodfriend, who is always looking for the best that can be had to entertain his patrons, has secured a special release entitled "The Life of Moses." This subject comes in five reels, or is approximately 5,000 feet long, consequently the program will be of one and one half hours' duration. There will be but two performances that evening on account of the length of the program, the first starting at 7 p. m. and the second at 8:45. The admission for this night only will be 25 cents. A special program of musical numbers has been arranged, both vocal and instrumental, and Mr. Goodfriend assures all that it is one of the best performances given in the popular little playhouse.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency? I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $2.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 81206 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope.
